Judith D. Swisher, Ph.D.

Dr. Swisher developed the PAES in response to the need for an alternate method of assessing the potential and instructional needs of students whose skills are typically undetected by traditional testing measures. She received her doctorate at the University of Kansas with a major in special education, emphasis in transition planning, and minor in statistical analysis. She has served as consultant to school districts throughout the US, a nationally certified vocational evaluator and transition specialist.

P.O. Box 5087 • Jacksonville, Florida 32247-5087 • Toll Free Nationwide 1.800.634.1472

© 2004. Talent Assessment, Inc. All Rights Reserved.